ABOUT US

Founded in 2018, headed up by Tommy Speer Jr, who has over 25 years of industry experience, we've delivered numerous events in the past 4 years. Booking a plethora of well-known and upcoming artists and with event attendee numbers in the hundreds of thousands.

We offer premium turn-key production, talent booking, event curation and management and much more.

We have hosted some of the most socially influential events on the West Coast and we have a wide network of collaborators across the west coast as well as relationships with promoters, festival organizers and city councils which means that if we can dream it...we can do it.
